Kansas City based, Sioux Chief Manufacturing, hosted the August 2014 Summer/Fall Meeting for the Southern Wholesalers Association's Leadership Development Council.

Kansas City, Missouri - August 27, 2014 – Kansas City based, Sioux Chief Manufacturing, hosted the August 2014 Summer/Fall Meeting for the Southern Wholesalers Association's Leadership Development Council.

The LDC group was given a guided tour of the 400,000+ square foot manufacturing complex and was able to see how many innovative Sioux Chief products are made as well as the extensive quality standards and processes that are in place.

Later, the group was treated to a BBQ lunch in the auditorium with Sioux Chief's Product Group Directors, as well as the Sales Management Team and Owner, Joe P. Ismert. After lunch LDC chairman, Barry Jewel, conducted the LDC meeting.

That evening the entire LDC group, along with Sioux Chief Management, enjoyed a Kansas City Royals game in the Frank White Suite at Kauffman Stadium.

"We are proud sponsors of the Southern Wholesalers Association and the Leadership Development Council and we're honored to host this meeting for the future leaders of our industry," said Mike Stallings, Director of National Sales at Sioux Chief.

"From every member of the Southern Wholesalers Association and the Leadership Development Council, we wanted to thank everyone at Sioux Chief for hosting and making possible the 2014 Summer/Fall LDC Meeting," said Brad Hall, the incoming LDC 2nd Chairman.

"As up and coming leaders ... see first-hand how a successful company like Sioux Chief operates with great leaders, (this) makes a lasting impression on each LDC member."
